FOREIGN LANGUAGE FOR YOUTH

PROGRAM INFORMATION

- Conveniently located at Cascade Ridge Elementary
- Teachers supported by visiting administrative team
- Games, songs, and activities from established curriculum

The Issaquah School District (ISD) recognizes the important role that local nonprofit and community organizations play in providing educational and cultural programs for students in non-school hours. ISD allows non-profit, charitable and civic organizations, and businesses to distribute information to students and families through the Peachjar system. Upon approval, flyers are emailed directly to parents. All materials must be approved by the district.
